PYFL Insurance Waiver

Due to financial constraints, Princeton Youth Football WILL NOT provide accident or health insurance coverage for youth participants.

All participants are strongly advised to be certain that they have appropriate insurance coverage in the event of an accident. You are encouraged to purchase 24-hour coverage from your local school insurance program if you have no other insurance coverage.

Princeton Youth Football neither accepts nor assumes responsibility for providing such insurance coverage, and further expressly advises here that it neither accepts, nor assumes, the payment of any health related expense incurred by any participant by reason of the youth's participation in the PYFL program.

All personal equipment must be NOCSAE certified and is the sole responsibility of that participant.

If you have any questions, please contact your personal insurance agent.
